OUR VISION AND MISSION

STATEMENT

VISION

NUPSAW'S VISION IS TO BECOME THE BIGGEST AND MOST PROGRESSIVE TRADE UNION IN THE PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SECTORS.

OUR MISSION

1. To create structures and infrastructures to serve the best interest of its members.
2. To use these structures to defend, at all times, the job security of members and to use all resources at our disposal to fight unfair dismissal, retrenchments, redeployment and other mechanisms used by employers that could effect job security.
3. To endeavour at all times to have worker participation in decision making.
4. To ensure a culture of democratic decision making and accountability at all levels.
5. To eradicate all forms of oppression, exploitation and discrimination of workers.
6. To ensure a living and just wage for all workers.
7. To ensure that all conditions of service such as hours of work, leave, pension, homeowners' allowances, and other benefits are in the best interest of members.
8. To provide the best and most competitive benefits, medical aid, loan schemes, and discount benefits for members.
9. To create an organisational structure free of racism, tribalism, ethnicism, sexism, gender, disability and class discrimination.
10. To promote unity among workers and the working class irrespective of party political affiliations.

3

11. To fight political injustice, corruption and nepotism at all levels and to ensure the proper distribution of social and economic resources in a just, equitable and humane manner

- b) manage discipline efficiently and effectively.
- c) ensure that disciplinary process is never be used to silence or suppress the opposing views but only when it is genuinely necessary.
- d) ensure that discipline is correctively measured and not a punitive.

8.2 SCOPE OF APPLICABILITY

This code and procedure is applicable to all the members and office bearers of the Union.

8.3 LEGAL PRESCRIPTS

- Labour Relations Act (66 of 1995)
- Promotion of Administrative Justice Act (3 of 2000)
- Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (of 1996)
- Disclosure of Information Act
- NUPSAW Constitution

8.4 NON EXHAUSTIVE ACTS OF MISCONDUCT

- 8.4.1 Any member or Office Bearer shall be guilty of misconduct if he/she:-
- 8.4.2 Fails to represent, encourage or compel others not to represent a member.
- 8.4.3 Encourages or causes division within the Union.
- 8.4.4 Fails to co-operate with the higher structure/s.
- 8.4.5 Engages in corrupt or theft activities within the union.
- 8.4.6 Connives with the rival organization/s to discredit this Union.
- 8.4.7 Works against the decisions of the official union structure.
- 8.4.8 Fails to carry out a lawful or official mandate by his/her valid structure to which she/he belongs.
- 8.4.9 Conducts him/herself in a manner that brings the union into disrepute.

- 8.4.10 Assaults, attempts or threatens to assault other members.
- 8.4.11 Endangers the safety of fellow members.
- 8.4.12 While on union duties, conducts himself/herself in a improper or disgraceful manner or at any time behaves or acts in a manner detrimental to the image or interests of Union.
- 8.4.13 Without the written consent of Union, directly or indirectly accepts any benefit or compensation, in cash or otherwise, resulting from his/her association, engagement of duties with the Union.

8.5 COMPOSITION OF THE DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

- 8.5.1 There shall be a disciplinary committee appointed on ad-hoc basis comprised of 2 members as follows:
- 8.5.2 Presiding officer (preferably someone with a sound legal or labour relations knowledge or experience)
- 8.5.3 Investigating officer/ Prosecutor
- 8.5.4 The function of the presiding officer may be outsourced

8.6 PROCEDURE

8.6.1 Precautionary suspension

- 8.6.1.1 An ordinary member shall not be subjected to a precautionary suspension before any disciplinary process.
- 8.6.1.2 An Office Bearer from any level may be subjected to a precautionary suspension depending on the severity of misconduct and any possible interference with the investigation.
- 8.6.1.3 The precautionary suspension shall not exceed 60 days before the investigation is finalized and the accused charged accordingly.
- 8.6.1.4 If the accused is charged, then the suspension shall continue until the case is finalized within a further 60 days .
- 8.6.1.5 A letter of suspension shall be served in writing and be acknowledged accordingly, or be sent by registered mail or any other mode that will have a proof of delivery.

8.7 Investigating and Presiding of the case

- 8.7.1 All the allegations shall be thoroughly investigated by collecting the facts from various witnesses and evidence.
- 8.7.2 The Investigating officer and Presiding Officer shall be appointed in writing by the General Secretary or President whatever the case may be.
- 8.7.3 He/she shall interview any witness required to provide information.
- 8.7.4 He /she shall be authorized to enter into any NUPSAW office to get information or records.
- 8.7.5 No member or employee shall refuse to release any required information by the Investigation officer.
- 8.7.6 He/she shall compile an investigation report and submit to the General Secretary.
- 8.7.7 He/she shall present the evidence at the hearing when the matter is set down.

8.8 The Presiding Officer responsibilities :-

- 8.8.1 The central reason that a presiding officer (PO) attends a disciplinary hearing is to hear and understand the evidence from both sides.
- 8.8.2 The PO must hear this evidence properly in order to be able to consider it once the hearing is adjourned for purposes of a verdict.
- 8.8.3 The PO then assesses evidence adduced at the hearing in order to decide whether the member is guilty or not guilty of the charges.

8.8.4 The PO shall then give the accused an opportunity to present the mitigating circumstances and then give the complainant to present the aggravating circumstances before deciding on the appropriate sanction which will range as follows:-

8.8.4.1 Written reprimand

8.8.4.2 Suspension in months – up to years.

8.8.4.3 Expulsion

8.8.5 if the verdict is guilty, the PO must decide on the corrective action most appropriate to the circumstances. But this key task is more difficult to achieve if the PO's collecting of evidence is hampered. Such obstacles could, for example, include the absence of key participants, unjustified objections, unnecessary adjournments and disruptive behaviour by the parties at the disciplinary hearing.

8.8.6 The Presiding officer will then recommend the appropriate sanction and then submit a report to the General secretary or President whichever the case maybe.

8.8.7 The General Secretary or President will submit a report to the National Executive Council for consideration and necessary decision.

8.9 DISCIPLINARY ENQUIRY

8.9.1 Process of enquiry

- a) the accused shall be given a 7 days' notice before the hearing.
- b) the accused must acknowledge receipt of the notice thereof. If the accused refuses to sign receipt of the notice, at least two witnesses must indicate the refusal and sign the document accordingly, and return a signed copy to the Investigating officer.
- (c) the General Secretary/President/Provincial Secretary whichever the case maybe, shall organize a suitable venue and equipment for the hearing:
 - Boardroom
 - Voice recorder
 - A scribe

8.9.2 Conducting the Disciplinary hearing

- a) the disciplinary hearing shall be held on the date and time specified on the notice letter . If not possible on the specified date then a formal postponement shall be proposed to the Presiding Officer and be granted and rescheduled accordingly.
- b) the hearing may be attended by:
 - i) the Presiding Officer as appointed by the General Secretary or President.
 - ii) the Investigating Officer who will present the evidence and also prosecute in the case.
 - iii) the accused and his/her representative who may be a fellow Comrade or legal representative.
 - iv) an interpreter, if required.
 - v) a Secretary or Scribe to take minutes.

8.9.3 The disciplinary panel consisting of Presiding Officer and the Investigating officer shall then submit their final report separately to the General Secretary/President whichever the case maybe .

8.9.4 The General Secretary / President shall then present a report to the National Executive Council for consideration and decision making.

8.9.5 The outcome or decision of the National Executive Council shall then be communicated in writing to the relevant structure and the member of Office Bearer concerned.

8.10 RIGHT OF APPEAL

8.10.1 A member or Office Bearer concerned shall have a right to appeal an NEC decision if not satisfied. An appeal may be referred to the following structures who shall have to deliberate of the issue and take the necessary decision:-

8.10.2 The National General Council, or The National Congress.

8.10.3 If the NEC decision is overturned by the higher structure, then the member or office bearer shall revert back to the original position except if the term of office has expired and elections conducted constitutionally. In case of a member, all membership rights shall be restored accordingly.

9. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP.

- 9.1 A member may resign by giving three months notice in writing, to the Provincial Secretary, (or the General Secretary where no Provincial Secretary operates) provided that no resignation shall take effect until all monies due to the Union by the member have been paid.
- 9.2 A member whose membership fees are more than three (3) months in arrears shall automatically cease to be a member of the Trade Union. Such person shall however be liable for all monies due to the Union as at the date that she ceases to be a member of the Union.

 - i. The liquidator appointed by the Labour Court shall call upon the last-appointed office-bearers and officials of the Union to deliver to him the Union's books of account showing the Union's assets and liabilities together with the register of members showing for the twelve (12) months prior to the date of which the resolution for the winding-up was passed or the date from which the Union was unable to function, as the case may be, (hereinafter referred to as the date of dissolution), the membership fees paid by each member and his address as at the said date.
 - ii. The liquidator shall also call upon the said officebearers and officials of the Trade Union to hand over to him all unexpended funds of the Trade Union and to deliver to him the Union's assets and documents necessary to liquidate the assets.
 - c) The liquidator shall take all necessary steps to liquidate the debts of the Trade Union from its unexpended funds and any other monies realised from assets from the Union, and if the said funds and monies are insufficient to pay all the creditors after the fees of the liquidator and the expenses of winding-up have been met, the order in which creditors shall be paid, shall, be the same as prescribed in any law for the time being in force relating to the distribution of the assets of an insolvent estate and the fees of the liquidator and the fees for the winding-up shall rank in order of preference as though she was a liquidator in an insolvent estate and as though the expenses were costs of sequestration of an insolvent estate.

- d) After the payment of all debts in accordance with clause (c), the remaining fund, if any, shall be distributed by the liquidator amongst the remaining members of the Union. Members shall be awarded a share in proportion to the membership fee actually paid by him in respect of the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the said date.
- e) After the payment of all liabilities, any assets that cannot be disposed of in accordance with the provision of this clause shall be realised by the liquidator and all proceeds paid to the Commission for Conciliation, Mediation and Arbitration in accordance with section 103(5) of the Labour Relations Act, 1995.
