MOBILIZATION FOR SAFTU'S PICKET FRIDAY, 8 SEPTEMBER 2017

NEDLAC BIAS AGAINST OTHER UNIONS

SAFTU, to which NUPSAW is affiliated, will protest outside the annual NEDLAC summit in Johannesburg on Friday, 8 September, to demonstrate its frustration with the council.

SAFTU has suspicions that NEDLACs stalling in issuing section 77 certification is a deliberate ploy to frustrate non-Cosatu aligned unions. It also seems as if current parties to the council are colluding to keep SAFTU out of NEDLAC.

The SAFTU-protest on Friday will also be to pressure NEDLAC to consider its affiliation to the council.

Dear members,

The planned picket and demonstration will take place adjacent to the Emperors Palace and will be on the 08th September 2017 from as early as 08:30 in the morning.

UNION PARTICIPATION

It was agreed that each SAFTU Union will bring a minimum of 100 members to attend the picket and a further 10 who are expected to arrive a lot earlier.

ADDRESSING OUR CHALLENGES

It is important to emphasize that the success of this activity will go a long way to address our challenges regarding:

NEDLAC's effort to deny us admission as a party; its devious refusal to grant us the necessary protection to advance our demand for NMW; Jobs & Economy and Crisis in Education, most importantly our serious efforts to do away with the ongoing cutting of sell-out deals behind workers' backs and class peace –collaboration currently ensuing.
