- 10.4 A meeting of the Chamber shall be called on request of any party to the Chamber.
- 10.5 The date, time and place of the meeting of the Chamber shall be determined by the Secretary of the Council or the chamber as the case may be.

11. VOTING RIGHTS

- 11.1 The vote weight of a trade union in the Chamber shall be determined on the basis of its actual membership within the area of jurisdiction of that Chamber (as reflected by PERSAL figures) in proportion to the membership of all the trade unions admitted to the Chamber.
- 11.2 The employer has an equal number of votes to that of the trade unions admitted to the Chamber, collectively.
- 11.3 The determination of the vote weight of a trade union to a Chamber must be linked to the processes of the Council in respect of the review of trade union membership of the Council.

12. DECISIONS/RESOLUTIONS OF THE CHAMBER

- 12.1 A decision of the Chamber requires the vote of the employer together with a majority of votes of the trade unions admitted to the Chamber and a collective agreement requires the signature of the employer and a number of admitted trade unions who represent the majority of votes on the side of labour in the Chamber.
- 12.2 Subject to clause 12.4, any decision or resolution of the Chamber referred to in clause 5.3 shall not take effect for a period of 30 days after receipt of the notification by Council.
- 12.3 During the period contemplated in clause 12.2, the Council must satisfy itself that the decision or collective agreement of the Chamber –
 - (a) falls within the jurisdiction of the Chamber : and
 - (b) is not in conflict with any decision or collective agreement of the Council.
- 12.4 Should it be found that a decision or collective agreement of the Chamber does not meet the criteria referred to in clause 12.3, the Council may set aside or vary such decision or collective agreement.

The image shows three handwritten signatures in blue ink. The first is a large, stylized signature. The second is a smaller signature. The third is a signature with the initials 'Gy' and a date '10/11' written below it.

- 12.5 For purposes of clause 12.3, a committee comprising the Secretary of Council and a panellist from the panel of conciliators and arbitrators appointed in terms of clause 15.9 (c) of the Constitution of Council, may consider any decision or collective agreement of a Chamber and notify Council of its finding.

13. QUORUM

- 13.1 The employer plus the number of admitted trade unions representing a majority of the votes on the side of labour constitute a quorum at any duly constituted meeting of the Chamber.
- 13.2 If, within 30 minutes of the time fixed for any meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting stands adjourned to such other date, time and place to be determined by the Chairperson after consultation with the parties present, on condition that the Secretary notifies the relevant parties accordingly. At such a reconvened meeting the parties present form a quorum. The date and time for such reconvened meeting shall not be later than 10 working days after the date of the original meeting.

14. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 14.1 If a dispute arises during the negotiation process in a Chamber that cannot be settled, any party may refer the matter for conciliation in terms of the Dispute Resolution Procedures of the Council.
- 14.2 If the matter is not resolved during the conciliation process, parties to the Chamber may exercise their rights in terms of the Labour Relations Act, 1995.
- 14.3 If there is a dispute about the interpretation or application of a collective agreement of a Chamber or a dispute about the interpretation or application of this agreement, any party may refer the dispute to the Council in terms of the Dispute Resolution Procedures of Council.

15. GENERAL

- 15.1 The provisions of the Constitution of the Council with regard to the admission of trade unions, the change to the position of admitted trade unions and the termination of membership of trade unions to the Council must be accommodated in a Chamber in as far as it has an influence on the Chamber.

16. TRANSITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS

- 16.1 Any collective agreement concluded in an existing provincial or national departmental bargaining council or similar forum That falls within the jurisdiction of the GPSSBC must be submitted to the Council within 1 month of being established in terms of this agreement for ratification in terms of par. 12 of this procedure.
